Revenue...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...and ask to look at their handling of specific project applications and to determine whether they had properly or improperly followed the statutes in allowing that particular application?

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: I think they could review the work of the department, but I don't think they would be privy to any of the information that Senator Brashear read to you on the application form. I don't think that the performance evaluation process would be able to access confidential information like that.

SENATOR BEUTLER: (Microphone malfunction)...recite again then what that confidential information is that the performance review could not examine.

SENATOR LANDIS: I don't think you could get to the individual application forms. Those application forms, I think Senator Brashear described them as being 18 pages long, listed...

SPEAKER BROMM: Time.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...and the list that he asked for by project I don't think could be released to the Performance Review Committee under existing law, nor would they...

SPEAKER BROMM: Time.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...under the amendment that I've written. Sorry.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Landis, Senator Beutler. Senator Brown, your light is next.

SENATOR BROWN: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, Senator Brashear read you the whole list of information that is
