FLOOR DEBATE

March 26, 2003 LB 46

day. I would rather be locked down every day.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I cannot stand to be under those circumstances. So I do not want put into the law words that will give that kind of power over others who may not have the strength that I have to take the consequences of refusing to be anybody's slave. But I understand that there might be some changes in this part of the bill. The reason I'm speaking so strongly against it is so that my following comments might not be lost. I'm going to support the bill. I'm going to support advancing the bill. I want Senator Brashear to know that I'm even going to swallow that dollar that they will add to court costs. There are fees that they'll put on probationers and parolees that I do not like.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Hartnett on the Brashear amendment.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Mr. President, I would give my time to Senator Beutler if he so desires.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Beutler, you have almost five minutes if you care to use it.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Hartnett, thank you very much. Senator Brashear.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Brashear,...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR CUDABACK: ...would you respond to a question from Senator Beutler?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Again going back to the provision allowing the
