FLOOR DEBATE

March 26, 2003      LB 46

many years? Or one year? Or how would that work?

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Brashear.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Senator Beutler, my immediate reaction would be that you report so long as the state is exercising any jurisdiction over them.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. So it's just for the short period in which they're still being supervised?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Hopefully, if the total philosophy of the bill works, it will be a longer period of parole rather than a shorter period of parole, because we're trying to decrease costs and increase opportunity for reintegration into society. So in other words, I'm trying to point out that maybe we'll get to a situation where probation is extending over two...a two-year period (inaudible). So a parolee would be reported upon twice or three times.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I see. Okay. Thank you very much. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Beutler and Senator Brashear. No further lights on the committee amendments. Senator Brashear, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. Thank you all for your listening and for your participation. I would urge the adoption of the committee amendment as amended. To summarize briefly, we have clarified with regard to presentence investigations that there shall be a presentence investigation with regard to each and every felony sentencing. We have declared the intention of the Legislature that committed offenders be eligible for parole at an opportunity prior to the expiration of their sentences. We have encouraged continued participation in treatment programming by offenders and in personalized program plans. The board of parole is required by the amendment, required, I emphasize, to hold a parole review at least 60 days prior to a parolee...an offender's parole eligibility date. And we are declaring that failing to comply
