its final judgment, that stands for enhancement, not for anything else, but for enhancement.

SPEAKER BROMM: And is there a precedent for that? I mean, has that been accepted...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SPEAKER BROMM: ...by our court system on other...?

SENATOR KRUSE: I understand that it has.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Mr. President, I'd yield my time to Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, you have about five minutes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. And Mr. President, how many times have I spoken in my own right on this?

SENATOR CUDABACK: You have spoken three times. I'm sorry.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So I'm going to turn this light off.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I'm speaking on Senator Hartnett's time now, and I thank him for that.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You are. Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, and Senator Bromm, these issues that I'm raising, I'm not satisfied with these things as they exist, but I had said that I would not offer amendments. When you go to page 18 and you look at this attempting to elude the peace officer, if you go to the statute, or the requirements, even, of courts, when you're charging with a person of flight to avoid arrest, there has to
