FLOOR DEBATE

March 28, 2003 LB 439

what...you know, what kind of place is that up there? Could somebody actually come in and accost you? I mean, this guy...ask him, right up here on the floor, he had to stop him. It could happen to any of us at any time. Not saying that even if the State Patrol has the security that that couldn't happen. Space in time incidents can happen. And we were just talking about the security in here, you know.

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR COMBS: Up here in the front, we've discussed, that's probably not a real secure area. So I do support the bill, continue to support the bill. But I did want to share my personal experience with what has happened to me. And hopefully we'll have some more good discussion on it before we go to vote. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Combs. Senator Mossey.

There are organizations in the state, such as Possee Comitatus, paramilitary organizations, that is their goal, to overthrow the government, and they recognize no authority. I think it's important that the State Patrol does handle the security over the Capitol police, because they are more knowledgeable of what is going on in the state than DAS is. They are more privy to the information that is distributed amongst law enforcement that's not shared with the public or other offices because they don't need that information because it's confidential information for law enforcement only. And that's the type of information that could be relayed to the Capitol police. I see
