guns to protect you from your neighbors, all these good people that you know? Who in here has ever needed to use a gun? I want to ask Senator Mossey a question or two if he would yield.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Mossey, would you yield?

SENATOR MOSSEY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Mossey, in order for your gun to be concealed, you wore plain clothes and civilian clothes, is that true?

SENATOR MOSSEY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Where did you carry your gun? Behind your back, stuck in your belt, or under your arm, or just where did you carry your hidden gun?

SENATOR MOSSEY: I had a holster that fits inside your belt like this.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You're pointing to your side.

SENATOR MOSSEY: Exactly.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Just for the record, okay.

SENATOR MOSSEY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you stuck it down in that holster on your side?

SENATOR MOSSEY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you covered with your jacket or a shirt?

SENATOR MOSSEY: Or a shirt untucked or it was never visible. It was never once seen.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So looking at you, there was nothing that would tell a person you're a police officer, such as a badge, a
