FLOOR DEBATE

April 1, 2003 LB 265

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It does not.

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Another part of the bill allows a person to appeal a denial of a permit to district court. Would you object to this section saying that this action for revoking should be filed by the county attorney in the district court, instead of just saying an action shall be filed, without saying which court?

SENATOR TYSON: I don't see why, number one, it has to be specified as to which court. It could be a county court or a district court. I won't be one of the...it won't be any other court.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you have to state where an action is to be filed so you know which court has jurisdiction. And jurisdiction goes to the ability of a court to hear an action. And you cannot just throw it up in the air. Well, anyway, thank you, Senator Tyson. Members of the Legislature, do you see what I mean about people pushing this bill who don't care about the underlying requirements of the law? When we say that a cause of action can be brought, we state...

SPEAKER BROMM: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...in what court it is brought. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a priority motion. Senator Tyson would move to invoke cloture, pursuant to Rule 7, Section 10.

SPEAKER BROMM: The Chair finds that there has been a considerable amount of debate on the bill, and, even though we've not been able to reach all the sections formally, that full and fair debate has been afforded. Therefore we'll proceed with the vote on the cloture motion. There is no clcising, but Senator Tyson, I do offer you the opportunity to be recognized
