amendment, because if they retain that authority, if they have the final authority then it's the county board that has to make that final determination.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And they would have to then issue this. The request then would be made directly to the county board, and the county board is the one that would be required to issue the determination in a timely manner. Is that correct,...

SENATOR KREMER: Well, that's...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...with the Bromm amendment?

SENATOR KREMER: ...that's the way I read it, but I'm not an attorney.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I just want to get the sense of it, because I thought that's what was intended, but sometimes when you read these things it's like saying the same word over and over.

SENATOR KREMER: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Pretty soon, it loses all meaning to you.

SENATOR KREMER: Well, I have to read it over and over myself to even understand it many times.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So I'm going to let that go.

SENATOR KREMER: Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Here's what I'm looking at.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time. Time is up, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, the constraint of time. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Sorry about that.
