FLOOR DEBATE

April 8, 2003

LB 513

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. And, Mr. Speaker, Senator Bourne had given me the rest of his time. How much is left?

SPEAKER BROMM: Three minutes and thirty seconds.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. I would like to ask Senator Bourne a question.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Bourne, do you yield to a question?

SENATOR BOURNE: Yes, I will.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bourne, when you said...when you expressed your frustration, do you mean you would not support the bill also, or you're just not going to support amendments?

SENATOR BOURNE: What I'm trying to express, Senator Chambers, is that we had...I don't want to say "arguably"...I mean, we had an idea from Senator Byars that all of a sudden has become this super protection measure, that instead of it applying to simply college kids who, according to Senator Byars, are more susceptible or more prone to getting this disease, and now we're going to add high school kids. I illustrated to you that I had a niece who was three years old that had the same thing. So should we, before...at birth, should we make parents aware that this could happen? Well, then...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator...

SENATOR BOURNE: Hold on a sec. So then let's also say that, well, you know, you could fall off your bicycle, parent,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But, Senator Bourne, you gave me your time, so I'm going to use it. But here's what I want to mention to you. The amendment that I'm offering would take all references to vaccinations out, and only require that the information be given, but it would be given to all of the students.

SENATOR BOURNE: I'm aware of what your amendment does, Senator Chambers.
