disseminate at the high school level. And he is correct, we have students that come to our colleges later from other states, and this would not prevent them having that information as well. So I would recommend you approve this amendment, and then make a decision on what you want to do with the educational piece, as opposed to the prevention piece that Senator Byars is recommending. Thank you very much.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Redfield. You've heard the closing on FA1283, an amendment to FA1269. All in favor please vote aye, and opposed nay. Have you all voted? Senator Chambers. A call of the house has been requested. All in favor please vote aye, and opposed nay. Please record.
