FLOOR DEBATE

April 10, 2003 LB 265A

her pickup truck, go in the tavern, get sloppy drunk, come back out, and carry that pistol hidden. That would be allowed under this bill, wouldn't it, Senator Brashear?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Somebody could do that, Senator Chambers. Yes. You're correct, somebody could do that. I think they're in violation of the law at the point where they leave it in their pickup.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yeah, but we're talking about when they get it...take it back out of their pickup...

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and hide it.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Right. You're right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: They can do that. Right. Now, is that what you want?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Brashear, doesn't the law say that if a person...and moral philosophy, if a person can anticipate the outcome of an act and places that act nevertheless, that person is responsible for the outcome? Have you heard that principle stated?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: I have heard that principle stated.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you don't accept that principle, I'm sure, do you?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: I do accept that principle.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So if you can see right now that there are going to be some drunks carrying these concealed weapons, you want that result, right?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: No, I do not. Anybody who...specifically the
