FLOOR DEBATE

April 10, 2003 LB 743

to the agreement of liberals and conservatives, whoever they are, alike. Thank you.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Friend, you're recognized to speak.

SENATOR FRIEND: Thank you, Madam Chairper...what are you right now? Sorry, I'm on the record. I have a...I actually have a question for Senator Baker, if Senator Baker would yield. I've got a few things to say, but I...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Baker.

SENATOR BAKER: Yes.

SENATOR FRIEND: Thanks. Senator Baker, I...just a quick question. And I...if I get put...let's say everything goes as planned here. I pay my $3, get put on an intrastate no-call list. I get...I probably get a call every three months from Creighton University. I graduated with a BA from Creighton. Can they legally call me once I'm thrown on that list?

SENATOR BAKER: We are going to address that with an amendment. We don't think so now, no. But that's part of what we have agreed to work with in the lobby and ourselves here.

SENATOR FRIEND: Oh, okay. Ail right. So...but if this amendment passes the way it is, I'm not going to get one of those cute calls from Creighton, you know,...

SENATOR BAKER: Are you saying you don't want it allow them to call you?

SENATOR FRIEND: I'm...sometimes I like them, depending on when payday rolls around and when they call. I guess...thanks, Senator Baker. I guess that was the answer to my question. This, to me,...I don't know that I agree exactly with what Senator Bourne is saying. I'd hate to be called liberal. But I see his point. And we're...this, to me, seems like a little bit of a slippery slope here. I mentioned yesterday in the line of questioning that I threw out that there are good actors and bad
