April 10, 2003 LB 743

federal government has done. And I realize that maybe it's too late to do something then as far as that. But we can sure make some adjustments in the first of next year if we have to, on the next session. But I think we need to move this on to Select, and so that they can sit down and work with amendment. And I'm agreed to help do that and try to figure out all the things that they've been talking about in the committee amendments. We realize that it might not be workable. And I think that everybody is in agreement to do that, and I just want to state that I'm willing to help do that too. Thank you.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Jones. Senator Price, you are the next speaker.

SENATOR PRICE: Madam Chairman and members of the body, I've listened to this debate yesterday and today, and there have been additions and deletions and so forth. I have a question for Senator Smith. Senator Smith, would you answer?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Smith, would you...

SENATOR SMITH: Yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...yield to a question? Thank you.

SENATOR PRICE: Senator Smith, how does this legislation relate to, like, Sutton Bay (phonetic)...this is a political question...Sutton Bay (phonetic), who works out of the state, and conducted a voter ID poll into Nebraska for my reelection campaign? Would they be permitted, or eliminated,...

SENATOR SMITH: That would be...

SENATOR PRICE: ...based on this legislation?

SENATOR SMITH: ...a commercial operation, and so they would acquire the list, see who doesn't want to be called, and they wouldn't bother those folks.

SENATOR PRICE: Thank you. I agree with Senator Redfield that you're always going to have someone who remained on the list
