FLOOR DEBATE

April 14, 2003 LB 610

defense attorney by way of suggestion or anything else. And this is happening, and it was so shocking to some of the people in the room that a county attorney representing the County Attorneys Association, who was speaking on another issue that their association had taken a position on, came up on his own, and if you look at the committee report you'll see it, where he said this bill should be passed, this kind of conduct is totally inexcusable, it is unethical, and the fact that a bill is needed is embarrassing. Now I'm paraphrasing. When I first became aware that it was happening, I wanted to take a bill like this, and I don't think anybody has a problem understanding the problem that exists if a prosecutor is going to determine who shall defend a person that the prosecutor is attempting to prosecute. So there was no opposition to the bill. I don't know how to make more clear what the bill does, but nevertheless, if you have any questions, I am prepared to answer them. Thank you, Mister...oh, Mr. Speaker. It was Mr. President before you, when I started. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM PRESIDING

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Do we have committee amendments? There are no committee amendments. Are there any other persons wishing to discuss this bill? I see no more lights. Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close.

SPEAKER BROMM: I see no more lights. Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I have to take this opportunity to see if I can get some sympathy today. Watch it, Landis. I had made it clear to the body that I was going to this great debate Sunday in Philadelphia. I showed up, but the man from the NCAA did not. He cancelled out at the last minute. And since I had announced it to the my colleagues, I feel I should let you know what did happen, and nobody is more disappointed than I am, but it lets you all know what you have among your midst. The NC...now, understand what I mean before you say, yeah, we know what's among our midst. Let me tell you. When the NCAA does on a college campus everybody shakes, because with the complexity of those rules it is impossible to get through a day without
