do something in good faith because you don't understand, then we're going to correct you. But when it becomes clear to us that you don't intend to go along with the program, you're out of that program, and you come back over here to be sentenced for that original crime.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Just back to the original sentencing procedure?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, as the law is now.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Okay. I'm going to continue to listen. I would yield my time to Senator Synowiecki.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Synowiecki, you have three minutes and 40 seconds.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Senator Cunningham. Senator Aguilar, you had mentioned probation personnel's involvement. Was it...well, first of all, with regard to Senator Chambers' concern, and trying to equate this with probation, I think it's important...again, getting back to my original dialog with you, Senator, the...one of the most important aspects of this program is the fact that it allows these defendants to defer, or to not have on their record a drug...a conviction, a felony conviction. Could Senator Aguilar please yield?

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Aguilar, do you yield to a question?

SENATOR AGUILAR: That is correct, Senator Synowiecki.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: Now, Senator Aguilar, correct me if I'm wrong. When a person is sentenced to probation for a felony drug offense, and they successfully complete the probation, that conviction is still on that record. Is that correct?

SENATOR AGUILAR: Now, there's two different drug court systems out there. Which one are you referring to?

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: No, I'm talking about traditional
