the agenda, but it has to go to the bottom of the list, because it's on General File. And if it fails to advance, it's got to go to the bottom, to Davy Jones' locker. And nothing, probably, could make...if I had a heart, nothing would make it happier. I never have liked this idea of drug courts without some kind of regulations that would prevent discrimination, not just based on sexual orientation and these things that are mentioned. I don't know if economic status is among those items. But they definitely should be there, that should. It says familial status, but not economic. And some people who have means will often get a break that others will not. And you can flip that coin and say, people without means will be denied opportunities open to others. So there would be additional changes that would have to be made. Senator Aguilar, was there a question you wanted to answer that has been unasked but you anticipate?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Aguilar.

SENATOR AGUILAR: The question is, there is a section in there that refers to people with no means. Nobody will be kept out of the drug court because of their lack of funds.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But here's what I mean. Once they're in it, then those fees will not have to be paid. But whether they get into it or not could determine on their economic condition. But let me ask you a question. Where in this bill does it say that a person without means would not have to pay any fees?

SENATOR AGUILAR: I'm going to have to do some research. Hang on, Senator.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Aguilar, were you...?

SENATOR AGUILAR: Page 3, line 12, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR AGUILAR: Section 5, actually.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But see, a person may not be indigent. A person may have some money. But as my seatmate was pointing
