FLOOR DEBATE

April 14, 2003 LB 454

program saves huge dollars, in the fact that we're not paying $22,000 a year to incarcerate these people. We're paying 16-17 hundred dollars for 18 months to get them the help they need. That's a huge savings to the state. And I think that needs to be realized by this body, understood by this body. It's not just about the initial outlay of dollars. This thing works. And down the road, if the state ever had to fund it, I wouldn't be surprised if it didn't have a negative fiscal note. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Aguilar and Senator Don Pederson. Mr. Clerk, item on the desk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend Senator Beutler's amendment. (FA1307, Legislative Journal page 1276.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to open on your amendment to the Beutler amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I'm going to go ahead and take this amendment. Senator Hartnett has his drafted. But this would clean up some language, in case we don't accept Senator Hartnett's. And I will speak only one time. On page 2, again, in line 6, I would strike the words "of criminal behavior," so we would leave "recidivism of persons" rather than "recidivism of criminal behavior of persons." Then, in line 9, I would strike the word "certain" and put the word "drug," because the only offenses we're talking about are drug offenses. So instead of saying "a person accused of certain offenses," persons accused of drug offenses. Then in line 9, again, instead of having the words "component of the"...they're talking about an alternative. It's not "an alternative component of the traditional criminal justice or juvenile justice proceedings." It is "an alternative to traditional criminal justice" and so forth. So those would be the three things I would do with language. In line 6, I would strike the words "of criminal behavior;" in line 9, I would strike the word "certain" and insert the word "drug;" still on line 9, I would strike the words "component of the" and insert the word "to," t-o. Thank you, Mr. President.
