FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2003 LB 267

SENATOR BURLING: Thank you, Mr. President. I appreciate the discussion, because I realize that some people weren't aware of this regulation and how the process worked. And so this gave an opportunity to bring it to discussion purposes. And I appreciate those who support. Appreciate the questions. They were all very important. I was doing this, you know, trying to maybe solve a problem that existed, in my opinion. And I was assured that it did what I wanted it to do, but maybe there is some question. And so I believe because it didn't have a hearing and we did get it drawn to people's attention, I appreciate that. I appreciate Senator Brashear's help on this. And with that, Mr. President, I'm going to withdraw my amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Burling, there is an amendment to your amendment. Have to go to Senator Chambers. Senator Chambers, what do you wish to do with your amendment? You do not wish to withdraw yours?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No. I haven't been consulted. My answer is no.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I took it for a no. (Laughter) We're addressing the Chambers amendment. Turn your light on if you want to speak, Senator Chambers. You may speak.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I have not had such an amiable discussion with Senator Burling as I've had this morning. And I think he and I ought to make the most of it. I'd like to ask Senator Burling a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Burling, will you yield?

SENATOR BURLING: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Burling, I do think this has been a valuable discussion. I really do, because I'm not aware that the issue of these private investigators or detectives has been discussed with the amount of attention being paid to it that was
