licenses. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Chambers, there are no further lights. You're recognized to close on FA1320 to the Burling amendment, AM1249.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, Senator Burling has been such a good sport this morning. He has given us some moments of lightheartedness and genuine laughter that I intend...but I'm not going to do it right this minute...I intend to pull my amendment. I read an article where they put little nuggets in it. And this scientist...I don't know why he just used women...he got this group of women and just set them to screaming as loud as they could. It lowered the rate of cholesterol. It lowered their blood pressure. It lowered their heart rate. So Senator Burling didn't get us all to screaming this morning. But he gave us a bit of laughter. And laughter is the best medicine for whatever ails you. So because of that, I'm going to pull my amendment to Senator Burling's amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: It is withdrawn. Senator Burling, you're now recognized.

SENATOR BURLING: Thank you, Mr. President. I appreciate...

SENATOR CUDABACK: You're recognized to close, that is.

SENATOR BURLING: ...the discussion. I appreciate the discussion, as I said. And it did bring to light what we wanted to discuss, and it was a pleasant time, I'll agree with Senator Chambers. I thought maybe that he would be a little more supportive of it, because when he leaves this body, as a young man, he may want to pursue private investigation. (Laughter) But we'll have to keep working on this. And so I thank everybody for their attention and support, and I withdraw the amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: It is withdrawn. Thank you, Senator Burling. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Brashear would move to amend,
