FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2003 LB 265

SENATOR TYSON: It's kind of difficult to answer a very broadly based question like that, Senator Schimek, but...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I know, but I'm really trying,...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR TYSON: ...number one, your home is yours and you dictate what goes on there.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I would assume so.

SENATOR TYSON: And, of course, the concealed weapon to the homeowner doesn't exist because that is their home. But any commercial establishment, I would think, of any not...a nonprofit, such as a domestic disturbance shelter, all these fall within the purview stated in the bill. Say no, just say no. How about that for a...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I've heard that somewhere before, Senator Tyson.

SENATOR TYSON: Yes. If they just say no...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Tyson...

SENATOR TYSON: ...then the answer is no, as well as the specifically enumerated places.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I appreciate your response and I have a suggestion to make.

SENATOR TYSON: Certainly.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Why don't you and I put up a motion that would suspend the rules, we move the clock forward an hour and we all adjourn? (Laugh)

SENATOR TYSON: That, Senator Schimek,...
