FLOOR DEBATE

April 28, 2003 LB 265

find out what happens. And the fact is, there are greater suicides for teenagers and children in this culture...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR THOMPSON: ...because of the fact that they have an access to a gun. We also know we have a huge number in the United States of firearm injuries to children. And we do know that one of the reasons that concealed carry laws are pushed is because that sells more guns. And there are going to be more opportunities for people to carry them, not only in their homes, but...or have them in their homes, but in their cars, in their purses, in other places. And that doesn't create a safer situation for us in our state. There is tons of information about the impact of having guns in your...in homes on children and young adults, and it's not good. We don't need to be one of the states with a shall issue law. You can carry concealed with an affirmative defense in this state. We shouldn't have a shall issue situation...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR THOMPSON: ...that we already know is going to cause great problems in our counties with the administrative parts of this, but also creates...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Your time is up.

SENATOR THOMPSON: ...an unsafer situation for law enforcement. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Thompson. The motion before the body is the motion to recommit LB 265 to a committee. Those wishing to speak is Senators Kruse, Schimek, Chambers and Mines. Senator Kruse.

SENATOR KRUSE: Mr. President and members, thank you. This is a weird bill. I can't quite figure out any good reason for it. I was reflecting on it as I was driving home the other day trying to figure out what my grandmother would have thought about it, the one I told you about who was the sharpshooter in central
