April 30, 2003 LB 407

they can find alternative sources for funding, that they're still in existence. They are not wiped out, and that there still could be their continued role, if they so desire and if they can find funding. So I would urge that you not support this particular amendment and hold fast to some of the cut...these very difficult cuts that we've had to make, this being included. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. We're sorry for the feedback, but it's being checked into. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, thank you, Mr. President and members. I believe the Women's Commission was established by Governor Frank Morrison. Am I right about that? Does anybody remember? Senator Wehrbein, do you remember how long we've had the Women's Commission? Was the Women's Commission established by Governor Morrison?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I do not know that, Senator Schimek. I haven't been here that long. (Laugh)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Wehrbein, would you change mikes? I think yours is giving a little...go to your next one. I'm sorry about that.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I must have radioactive since yesterday. Thank you.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: (Laugh)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you for doing that.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I was just...it was either Governor Morrison or Governor Exon. I know that the Women's Commission has been around for a long time and...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I can look in the history book we have.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well, I probably can look in the Blue Book, yeah. I guess my point is that I think this is almost an institution in our state government and I can't tell you the
