Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

May 7, 2003

LB 283

say, cool, Mr. Tinker; I will not toy with you further. (Laughter) But members of the Legislature, I understand things. Now, you can let this bill be the downfall, and the introducer of this bill doesn't care, because he has a plan of his own. But I believe if Mr. Tinker's falls, then the other, people won't give a you-know-what for it. And then we will come back for a special session. Because no matter what we do with the appropriations bill, we'll send it over to the Governor, because we have to send something, and if he line item vetoes, what then? What difference does it make?
