LB 407, 798

fire? / Answer: Generals generally go to great length trying to learn the enemy's strength. They'll not risk their troops on whim. One or another stratagem is employed. / Question: Of course, of course. / Answer: Only then will massive force be committed to the fray. Likely, they will carry the day. / Question: Nothing now is mysterious. A stalking-horse is not serious. / Answer: Now you understand, my son. The work of the stalking-horse is done. Fight the wars when you know you'll win 'em. Cobras never, never waste venom." That's why I wasn't up here talking. It was dead, and it was stalking. This that Senator Raikes is talking about is a horse of a different color. I'd like to ask him a question,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Raikes,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...Senator Raikes, that is.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Raikes, would you respond to a question?

SENATOR RAIKES: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Raikes, you did not go into any great discussion relative to the merits of this program, how it would function and so forth, so I would ask you a question. If there were money for this program, would you support the program?

SENATOR RAIKES: I think the answer to that is, yes, Senator. I am not convinced that this sort of program is not meritorious. This is simply a priority issue...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And ..

SENATOR RAIKES: ...at this point.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, excuse me. And this money currently is in the budget bill?

SENATOR RAIKES: Yes, this is in LB 407 and it also is in...I've forgotten the number of the bill that has a transfer out of the Cash Reserve Fund, maybe LB 798?
