or something in a certain geographic area...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Smith and Senator Thompson. Senator Bromm, followed by Senator Smith, Jensen, Erdman, and Mines.

SPEAKER BROMM: Yeah, Mr. President, the reconsideration vote should be green. Senator Smith was simply trying to put his amendment in the form that he intended it to be in the first place, and I think he deserves that consideration, just as any of us would that made a drafting error or a mistake in where the funds come from. So certainly would encourage you to support that. Then I'm in a real quandary because I would like to help Senator Smith's cause because I think the funding distribution does not appear to be logical. However, I also recognize the point that we're at and the number of days that we have to work with and the decisions we have to make, and that's a very...very much an obstacle for trying to address this, I think. I'd like to ask Senator Jensen a question or two, if he would yield.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen, would you yield to a question?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, I will.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Jensen, I'd just like to have you reiterate again, regardless of how this turns out, what your intentions are with regarding to looking at the funding for the federal qualified health clinics and particularly the distribution of funds that we're talking about.

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SPEAKER BROMM: What are you intentions in looking at that?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, it's certainly my intention that we will
