will see it again. Now it just so happens that that happens to be smoking on private property. And would I love for every restaurant to be smoke free? Absolutely. I don't like smoking. I have allergies. It's a problem for me, personally. But I don't believe the law needs to prevent me from going into a place, if I choose to go in, and cough a little bit. But when we look at the personal responsibilities, now you will see the list of amendments primarily by Senator Byars, Senator Thompson, and Senator Jensen. Most of those are Senator Jensen's. And it's a delaying tactic and that's fine. The time clock is in their hands but I refuse to be criticized for taking up time when they are not even my amendments. Nonetheless, I refuse, and if it helps contribute to the filibuster, so be it, but I refuse to let anyone mischaracterize an issue. Senator Byars, I do have a question on the statement that you've stated prior. Could you yield?

SENATOR VRTISKA: Senator Byars, will you yield?

SENATOR BYARS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR SMITH: You said 46 out of 50 states have legislation relating to helmets.

SENATOR BYARS: That is correct.

SENATOR SMITH: Would you tell a constituent that if we have legislation introduced that it is likely to become law? How relevant is that to the dialogue?

SENATOR BYARS: How relevant is this to the dialogue?

SENATOR SMITH: Right, legislation proposed, I am assuming meaning legislation and not laws.

SENATOR BYARS: I'm not understanding your question, Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: You said 46 states out of 50 states have legislation. Did you mean laws on the books, that is legislation that has passed or legislation that is being
