FLOOR DEBATE

May 19, 2003

LB 608

first attempt to do economic development way back when, was it didn't have any wages. And I guess no question for you, but is why the business community would put in a wage component for rural counties and nothing for the other counties. So that's just a comment on my own, because I still think that's...

SPEAKER BROMM: I can answer. I can answer that.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Okay.

SPEAKER BROMM: They didn't put that in there. We put that in there.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Okay. Okay.

SPEAKER BROMM: And they would like to have that not in there, but it is in there and we've kind of maintained it stays, so.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Okay. Thank you, Senator Bromm. I'll give the rest of my time back, Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senators Hartnett, Bromm, and Landis. The next speaker is Senator Jensen.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Madam President, members of the Legislature. Senator Landis, would you be available to a question, please, or a couple questions?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Landis, would you yield?

SENATOR JENSEN: Now it's my understanding this is both available to existing companies and new companies. Is that right?

SENATOR LANDIS: Yes, that's right.

SENATOR JENSEN: And there's no...

SENATOR LANDIS: By the way, that would be true for the current program, LB 270; it would be true for LB 775;...
