FLOOR DEBATE

May 21, 2003

LB 608

75 percent of what you said you would do, I think that deserves a lot of discussion. I'm not sure why, when you require five...

SPEAKER BROMM: But Sen...

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...new employees, that you can get by with four and not lose any of your credit.

SPEAKER BROMM: But, Senator, up until now, the last two or three hours we've been on this bill, we've been talking about things entirely different than the amendment. We've been talking about ideas that you've presented. And I'm not sure those have had a public hearing or a bill either. Did your idea on the program evaluation, did that have a hearing? Was that a bill?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Program evaluation?

SPEAKER BROMM: The program evaluation concept of having them audit these tax returns?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Program evaluation? There were two bills on program evaluation this year, in which all different aspects of...

SPEAKER BROMM: Including this idea?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Including the idea of including confidentiality areas, yes. That was discussed. But we didn't do anything about it in those bills. I had separate bills on wages. That's been discussed for a long time.

SPEAKER BROMM: Well, certainly, I...

SENATOR BEUTLER: All of these ideas...

SPEAKER BROMM: ...understand that.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...have been discussed.

SPEAKER BROMM: And I think, in essence, many of those
