SENATOR FRIEND: Well, but don't...don't they have to come up with that information? I mean how much are they paying...

SENATOR SMITH: Are you on the list or not, hypothetically?

SENATOR FRIEND: I'm on the list. I'm on the list but...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: One minute.

SENATOR FRIEND: ...I'm on the list but I want Notre Dame to call me probably. I mean that would be the hypothetical.

SENATOR SMITH: And you...then you tell them to call you. I mean that is...I'm not sure what your point is.

SENATOR FRIEND: There is a lot of people there. How do I...okay, no, here is what I'm saying. There are some of these calls that I think that we want to receive. This is a slippery slope, that's all I'm saying. I mean, I guess my line of questioning is we're probably not going to cover every angle here I would imagine, like Senator Baker alluded to that.

SENATOR SMITH: Exactly, I've never suggested that we would cover every angle here.

SENATOR FRIEND: My, I guess that's the point of my questioning is, if we can't cover every angle with this, I would...I guess...I don't know. I'm all for this except for the fact that it just doesn't seem that practical to me, folks. I'm worried about...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Time.

SENATOR FRIEND: Thank you.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Friend and Smith. Senator Cudaback, you're recognized to speak.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Madam President and members, this is my priority bill. I don't know if that makes any difference or not. It doesn't to most of you but it does to me I guess. I
