LB 283, 759

tax reconstruction labor would only exasperate (sic) the problem. Senator Stuthman attempted the amendment on LB 759. It failed by 20 votes. We have no come to realize $108 million additional revenue to the state through this federal relief package. I think it makes perfect sense to, once again, provide incentives to rehabilitate homes, for reconstruction projects for our low- and middle-, moderate-income homeowners. Appreciate your support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Synowiecki Senator Stuthman.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members of the body. I too also support this amendment. I tried unsuccessful to get this off of the LB 759. But like I had said in some of my other comments before on the Governor...on the override of the Governor's veto, I think we're trying to find another avenue to raise these funds. I know the funds are needed very much. But I think this is an appropriate way to do this, and I truly support this portion of the amendment. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Stuthman. Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Synowiecki would move to amend his amendment with FA1394. (Legislative Journal page 2059.)

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Synowiecki, you're recognized to open on your amendment to the amendment.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members. This is...was just an oversight in the drafting of the bill, a technical amendment, that we strike a couple sentences in the...within the amendment. It is technical in nature. And appreciate adoption of this amendment. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Synowiecki. Senator Brashear on the amendment to the amendment.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, certainly I do not have an objection to Senator Synowiecki's
