Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

May 29, 2003

pages 2111-2112.)

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Members, just for your information due to the scheduling tomorrow, we will convene hopefully if you adjourn...an adjournment motion today is worded properly we will convene at 1:00 tomorrow to finish up what Final Reading there is. We will stay until we hear from the Governor as to whether any of the bills that are read tomorrow that are passed are vetoed. And if necessary, we will take action on that right of way, and then we will be winding it up. Final Reading tomorrow shouldn't be more than an hour and a half, perhaps, so just for your planning purposes. Senator Mines, you're recognized for a motion, if you would, to adjourn until 1:00 p.m., tomorrow.

SENATOR MINES: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move we adjourn until 1:00 p.m., tomorrow afternoon.

SPEAKER BROMM: You've heard the motion to adjourn until 1:00 p.m., tomorrow. All in favor say aye. Opposed, if any. We are adjourned. Thank you.
