FLOOR DEBATE

January 12, 2004 LB 172

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Foley. I don't have any more questions. It wasn't until the debate had progressed some time that I looked...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...down on my desk and found something that Senator Foley had passed out. It says it's from the Carhart Abortion Clinic web site and it talks about what you want...what you should do if you do not wish to tell your parent, and I'm thinking, and this is an example of how we want kids to find out what the law is? It's not the way I want kids to find out what the law is. I would much rather it be done in an informative educational setting than off the Internet or any other way that's been suggested yet here today. And if you're going to leave it up to the schools to do as they wish, they won't do. I mean, I don't think there's any question in your mind. I would like to ask...is Senator Price on the floor anywhere? I would be really...

SENATOR CUDABACK: I do not see her.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...curious to know if there are any school board members in Lincoln...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...who have ever gotten any flak on this particular...I'm sorry?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Your time is up, Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Oh, I'm sorry, Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, your light is next, but you have spoken three times. Senator Schimek, your light is now next.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I would be real interested to know if any of the school board members in Lincoln have ever received much flak about this. I have been in this body ever since this bill was
