FLOOR DEBATE

January 13, 2004 LR 4

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And what is it that you...

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Rifle.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. What kind of rifle do you use?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: I've got a Winchester .30-30 lever action.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And what's the largest creature you have ever brought down with your Winchester?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Deer.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you said that is a sport.

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What does the term "sport" mean to you, so that I understand what we're talking about?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Something where you get out and get some activity and energy going and enjoy.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is boxing considered a sport?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Yes, it is.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is one opponent allowed to come up behind the other one and strike him in the back of the head?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: No, but I don't consider them animals either.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Wait, I'm...is one opponent allowed to deliver a rabbit punch to the back of the neck of an opponent?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: No. No, it is not. No, they are not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are deer predators?
