FLOOR DEBATE

January 13, 2004 LR 4

in accord with his nature, did what animals do. It attacked this person, disemboweled him, dragged him off, half-buried him, and ate part of him--just prey, in the same way human beings eat cows, pigs, chickens, and anything else they can get their hands on and sink their teeth into, chew up, swallow and digest. When another person came along, the person approached near to the half-buried prey...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...of this animal and again, acting in accord in its nature, the animal attacked this person. And people talk about animals being vicious as though they sit down cunningly and calculatingly decide what terrible things they're going to do to people. Because of that misperception, movies like Jaws, where they try to attribute to these animals some hostile intent toward human beings, misleads people who have no education other than what they get in a movie theater. I think animals are terribly abused by human beings. It shows the cruelty of humans like nothing else does. And to show how much the blood lust is upon people, the constitution is going to be sullied...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and polluted. Mr. President, I will ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. There's been a request for a call of the house. All in favor of the house going under call vote aye, opposed nay. Record please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to place the house under call.

SENATOR CUDABACK: House is under call. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Unexcused senators report to the Chamber. The house is under call. The house is under call. Please report to the Chamber and check in, please. Senator Dwite Pedersen, Senator Vrtiska, Senator Brashear, Senator Mossey, Senator Friend, Senator Redfield. Senators Burling,
