FLOOR DEBATE

January 13, 2004 LR 4

Legislature abolishing or outlawing fishing in Nebraska? Do you envision that happening?

SENATOR FRIEND: Not as long as I'm here.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: After you're gone?

SENATOR FRIEND: Possibly. I...let me...I don't know. I don't know the answer to that question. Do I see it? How could I see that?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Be still my beating heart. Let me ask you another one, Senator Friend.

SENATOR FRIEND: Please do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you see a Legislature outlawing hunting in Nebraska?

SENATOR FRIEND: I think it's been said before, and I agree with it, not...probably not in my lifetime.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Friend, if we are going to amend the constitution in whatever way, do you think there ought to be some realistic issue that we are addressing with that amendment?

SENATOR FRIEND: Your question implies that...your question doesn't...I don't follow the line of questioning, Senator Chambers. I mean,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, don't look for the line of questioning. Just, if you can concentrate on the question. If a constitutional amendment is proposed, should there be some existing issue which is being addressed by that proposal? Okay. That's too difficult. Thank...

SENATOR FRIEND: I believe so.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You're taking too much...okay. Okay, you believe so. Do you think there is an existing issue relative to the outlawing of hunting, fishing, and trapping by the Nebraska
