Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

January 13, 2004 LR 4

SENATOR FRIEND: No, I think that the answer...to elaborate on that answer, I think that there are constitutional experts--I would even consider you one, as far as this state is concerned, so I'll give you that, because...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So then why don't you follow my lead?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Time has expired.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Senator Erdman, please.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I was wondering if Senator Chambers would yield to a few questions.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Senator Chambers, would you yield?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Senator Chambers, I've been listening to the last ten minutes of debate with you and Senator Friend, or discussion, and I'm curious to know whether you believe in extraterrestrials.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Let me answer it this way, Senator Erdman.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Senator Chambers, come on, answer yes or no. Do you believe...?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, I've got to answer it my own way. There are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamed of in your or my philosophy. So there's a possibility that there are...

SENATOR ERDMAN: So is that a yes?
