FLOOR DEBATE

January 15, 2004 LB 560

Section 28. Is that what you're referring to?

SENATOR BOURNE: Actually, it's on page 9 of the amendment, down at the bottom,...

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, Section 28, on page 9.

SENATOR BOURNE: ...starting on...or, excuse me, line 22, page 9.

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, I'm there.

SENATOR BOURNE: And this deals not with motorboats but with salvage vehicles.

SENATOR BAKER: Yes.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. And I had asked you or your legal counsel, had this particular section had a hearing?

SENATOR BAKER: It was included in the green copy. It's obviously an amendment of the green copy.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. But it is new material, isn't it?

SENATOR BAKER: Yes. Without comparing it word for word, I'm sure there's some new material in it, yes, Senator Bourne.

SENATOR BOURNE: By new material, I mean new as a change from the existing statute.

SENATOR BAKER: Yes. I think it's mostly dealing with procedure and entering into the computer records.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay, I see it as a little bit more than that. And, as you and I had talked, I indicated to you I'd ask you a few questions and then we'd do something on Select File. I don't know what Senator Chambers' intentions are, but here are my concerns. What this deals with, members, is if an individual has a car that was in an accident and for some reason the...or, excuse me, if the insurance company totals the car out and then
