FLOOR DEBATE

January 22, 2004 LB 602

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why don't you prohibit that?

SENATOR SMITH: Because I don't seek to have a bill that claims to answer all concerns.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would that be more sinister, trying to use and combine human and animal DNA, than what you're talking about in this bill? Which would be the more sinister and hurtful to your concept of human dignity?

SENATOR SMITH: Senator Chambers, what you describe is certainly more sinister, but certainly less realistic.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you're not worried about it because it hasn't been done or attempted as far as you know?

SENATOR SMITH: That would probably be accurate.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How do you know it hasn't been attempted?

SENATOR SMITH: I've not seen any claims as such.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So whatever you don't see does not exist?

SENATOR SMITH: Senator Chambers, we could go on for days with the...

SPEAKER BRONM: Time.

SENATOR SMITH: ...circular argument.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And if I get a chance to talk, we're going to. Because it's your bill and I want to help you...I want you to help me make a record, unless you decide you don't want to answer questions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BRONM: Thank you, Senator Chambers and Senator Smith. Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the
