FLOOR DEBATE

February 2, 2004 LB 172

things in a dream because of him. I have suffered many things because of this bill, LB 172. I have felt a great degree of anguish because I see young women being given the back of the hand and not accorded the consideration they ought to have. How much time do I have, Mr. President?

SENATOR CUDABACK: About two minutes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: About two minutes. I have handed around a little rhyme and I mean every word of it. Over the weekend, I thought about this bill and what is likely to happen to the young women affected by it. At some point, I will probably read the rhyme into the record, but I haven't made up my mind yet to do that. This information that Senator Schimek's amendment addresses is not an advocacy for abortion, an advocacy of abortion. What is envisioned is the providing of accurate information...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...to young women who may be facing the greatest crisis in their young lives. The language affects students in grades 7 through 12. We have discussed at length the different circumstances under which a young woman could become impregnated and she would not want to mention to her parents or parent or guardians or guardian the fact that she was pregnant and that she wanted to have an abortion. There is in the law what is known as the judicial waiver, also called the judicial bypass, according to which a young woman could approach a judge and lay out a case as to why...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...she should not have to tell her parents. Did you say time, Mr. President?

SENATOR CUDABACK: I did, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. On with
