FLOOR DEBATE

February 2, 2004 LB 172

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...the information, but I find that his understanding in getting to his argument is totally misplaced. He goes on to say, if you would argue that a person going there, meaning to Planned Parenthood, would get balanced information about all options, including adoption or even talking to their parents, then you must think a majority of your constituency is really stupid. Well, no, that's not...that's precisely why I'm arguing that we need not to have the bill that Senator Foley introduced as it was introduced; that we do need something like the original provisions of the law. So I think he's not understanding and I suspect a lot of other people out there aren't understanding what we're talking about here. And every time I see it reported in the newspaper, it's that we're telling students in the schools about abortion. Well, we're not telling them about abortion. We're telling them about parental notification...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...and judicial bypass.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Chambers, there are no further lights on. You're recognized to close on FA1438 to AM2361.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Legislature, the amendment that you're being asked to vote on deals only with the matter of confidentiality. That is all my amendment would do. When an inquiry is made by a young woman or a request for information is made, the employee of the school must keep that request or that inquiry confidential. Senator Engel said he has no problem with that. I don't believe anybody on the floor has a problem with that. I hope that amendment will be adopted. Then Senator Schimek's amendment can be discussed on its merits. And, once again, we will argue as to whether or not these young women ought to be given the information. In the world of politics, many instances can be found where fallacious information was taken at face value, people ran off with it, and one recent example, a war was fought based on absolutely false information. Ignorance, misinformation are not the friends of civilization, are not the
