

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

February 3, 2004 LB 172

I say "generally" is because not every man is stronger than every woman, not every man can run faster than every woman, but as a general principle men physically are stronger than women. Men generally have a greater degree of self-doubt. Men have to do things to create the illusion of manliness, whatever that means, and men created the term. So if nature, if nature, who is portrayed in the feminine, should contrive to afflict a man with the inability to obtain an erection, men will create chemical means to achieve that because, unfortunately, the man's whole being is concentrated in his penis. When that droops, everything about him droops. So he has to come forward and show that he is strong, that he is powerful, and he does it by attacking the weak and the defenseless. Men often see women as threats. If you watch the movies that are made, they often portray women as monsters...

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...in the horror movies. They portray them as the murderesses, the tricksters, the schemers, and men as these naive, helpless, innocent, righteous creatures who would not harm a fly if the fly were taking a meal off the man's favorite dish. All of that is so much nonsense, but when that attitude on the part of weak men manifests itself on the floor of the Legislature, I have to stand against it, and I shall, and I believe LB 172 is an example of what I'm talking about.

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: Thank you, Senator Chambers.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a priority motion. Senator Foley would move to invoke cloture.

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: Senator Foley.

SENATOR FOLEY: Mr. Lieutenant Governor, I ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: There's been a request to place the house under call. The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor please vote aye; those opposed vote nay. Please record, Mr. Clerk.
