February 5, 2004 LR 14

Senator Hall understood what was happening to horse racing in Nebraska, and he wanted to revitalize that and Senator Hall was a little bit hot under the collar one morning and put a kill motion up on his bill and he virtually killed his own bill. I turned around and I asked him, I said, Senator Hall, what are trying to do? Well, he said, we're going...fought this long enough, we're going to try to find out where people are at. And he found out where they were at, and he killed his own bill. But I look back now, at that time, if we would have went ahead, what could be at that Ak-Sar-Ben; what Ak-Sar-Ben would have been today.
