FLOOR DEBATE

February 10, 2004 LB 1049

terrible bill. And after we get through with the amendments that are up here, I have a couple of amendments I want to offer to show that Senator Cunningham has not thought through this bill. Or if he thought through it, he did not amend it as he should. Senator Pam Brown mentioned that she's a cosponsor of the bill. I know that means it's bad, because she's the handmaiden of big business. That's not the first time she's heard me say that, and she knows that she is. When Senator Brown leaves here, she'll probably be the first female vice president of Union Pacific, with some responsibility, in the history of Union Pacific. Onward and upward. I'd like to ask Senator Cunningham a question or two about his bill.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Cunningham, would you yield?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Yes, I would.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Cunningham, who drafted this bill?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: The Bill Drafters. We gave them the idea. All we did, Senator Chambers, is change...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Who gave you the idea.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Constituents.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Business people, right?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Small business people.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would Senator Janssen qualify as a small business person?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Yes, he would.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: He's bigger than I am.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Well, that's a different terminology, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right. You ought to place your adjectives
