

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

February 11, 2004 LB 559

produced and crafted and drafted in cooperation with the Department of Motor Vehicles. That's why I'm a bit surprised at Senator Baker's stand on this, in the sense that they do this now. For immigrants that are here legally, for aliens that are here legally, but yet they cannot obtain a Social Security number because of immigration law,...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: ...they issue licenses to those individuals now as a rule and regulation. I guess what Senator Baker is telling us is that their protocols and procedures within the DMV conflict with existing law. I guess that's what he's saying.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. I'm not...I'm trying to get at exactly what your intent is. Maybe there's another way of doing it. If I change the language here--that first sentence says, "If an applicant is not able to produce a social security number." What if you change that to say, "If an applicant is not able to legally acquire a social security number"? Would that...that wouldn't bother you any, would it? I'm trying to exclude Senator Baker's group of people from the group of people that you're trying to protect, in order to enable you to protect that group of people. Senator Baker seems to be saying, well, if I'm a citizen of this country and I've got a child support thing out there, I may not...I may say I can't produce a Social Security number. Is that enough, just to say you can't produce it? Or must you be in a position where you must be unable to legally acquire it? You see what I mean?

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: Yeah, I think you're more specifically defining what my intent is in the amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: I so happen to think my language would suffice, as would, too, yours. My intent is for those that are here legally,...
