FLOOR DEBATE

February 17, 2004 LB 963

that you had some questions the other day, and I know that you were just talking to Senator Vrtiska. That's why I turned my light on.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes. Thank you, Senator Schimek. I'd like to ask you a question. Which...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...river is known as the "Father of Waters," if you know?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Probably the Mississippi?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And which river is the longest river in the world, if you know?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Amazon, I would guess. That's what I was going to say. I heard it somewhere over here, but that's what I was going to say. Is that right?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: A lady over here gave the answer, so I will say it so that it stays on the distaff side: the Nile.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: (Laugh) Oh, the Nile. Okay. Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: As the "Father of Discussion," Senator Schimek, I'm going to have long discussion of this bill.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I was afraid that was what you were going to say. (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. And are you giving me your time?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Members of the Legislature, this is a bill whose thrust I'm not opposed to. But there are parts of it that I do want to discuss. And the way I'm going to go
