FLOOR DEBATE

February 17, 2004 LB 963

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So other than the Army and the Air National Guard, which other branches are involved with the National Guard?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Those are the two main ones.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, does the Air National Guard have a director?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: That I don't know, Senator. I just know the rationale for putting the language in there.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm...oh.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Beutler, on the Chambers amendment.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Schimek, if I may?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I want to return to that concept of state active duty. And it makes a reference that it includes state active duty under the Nebraska Military Code. Is there a definition under that code of state active duty? Is that what we're...?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Don't know. I would guess so, yes, (laugh) since it says that.

SENATOR BEUTLER: So I guess my question is, are we using that definition? And if so, I would like to be informed as to what it is, because I'm grappling with this concept of what state active duty means, or trying to.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: We will get that for you, Senator. I would like to go back to your previous questions at some point, if you
