

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

February 18, 2004 LB 999

them, are what the committee amendments to LB 999 entail. I would be happy to try to answer any questions that anybody has. But I would urge the adoption of AM2339 to LB 999. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Quandahl. You've heard the opening on the committee amendments, offered by Chairman Quandahl and the Banking, Commerce, and Insurance Committee. Open for discussion. Senator Quandahl, did you mean to have your light on? Thank you. Senator Beutler, to address the committee amendments.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Cudaback, members of the Legislature. Senator Quandahl, if I may, I wanted to explore further a number of the provisions in the bill. I had an opportunity to glance through it last night, but on that review there were several things that I didn't have enough background on, and I just wanted to ask you a little more about them. And I'm going to stick to the committee amendment right now. On the first page of the committee amendment, Section 22, the new language indicates that subject to the right of redemption and confirmation of the sale, all right, title, interest, and claim of the mortgagor and his or her successors of interest...in interest, and of all persons claiming by or through or under the mortgagor or his or her successors in interest, in and to the property sold, including all such right, title, interest, and claim in and to such property acquired by the mortgagor and his or her successors in interest subsequent to the execution of the mortgage shall be deemed terminated as of the time the sheriff or master commissioner accepts the highest bid at the sale. Remind me what the process is here. You have a mortgage. Does this apply just to mortgages, or to deeds of trust to mortgages? That would be my first question. And I'd yield to Senator Quandahl for a series of questions here, if I might. Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator...I'm sorry, Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I would yield to Senator Quandahl to respond to questions.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Quandahl.