FLOOR DEBATE

February 19, 2004 LB 198, 278, 479, 838, 893, 931A, 1046, 1185
LR 14

corner of every little town across Nebraska, and there would be one that would be, let's say that the people voted for eight but the Legislature only said one, which is a potential, right, unless the Legislature says, hey, we've been mandated to do eight, we better do eight, which I will predict that dialogue right now? I mean can...is it really that simple that whichever one gets the most votes goes?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: On the conflicting issues part, both pass and if they have differing provisions,...

SENATOR VRTISKA: Time.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...both of their differing positions pass.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Mr. Clerk, items for the record.

CLERK: Thank you, Mr. President. Amendments to be printed: Senator Thompson, LB 838; Senator Vrtiska, LB 278; Senator Baker, LB 479; Senator Schimek to LR 14CA. Hearing notice from Government, Military and Veterans Affairs. A new A bill, LB 931A by Senator Redfield. (Read by title for the first time. Banking Committee has selected LB 1185 as one of its priority bills and Business and Labor Committee has selected LB 198 and LB 893 as the committee priority bills. Senator Hudkins would like to add her name to LB 1046. (Legislative Journal pages 681-692.)

And, Mr. President, a priority motion. Senator Bromm would move to adjourn until Friday, February 20, at 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Motion to adjourn, all in favor say aye. Opposed. We are adjourned.
