33 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the confirmation report.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The motion was successful. The report has been adopted. Mr. Clerk, next report.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next report, Health and Human Services, involves a series of appointments to the Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. (Legislative Journal page 672.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Jensen, to open on your report.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President. The following appointments are to the Commission of Deaf and Hard of Hearing. We have four. Margaret Coleman, a reappointment, hard of hearing, lives in Lincoln, an active volunteer and on...a volunteer on the behalf of deaf and hard of hearing. Number two, James Devaney, a new appointment, deaf, graduate from the university school of deaf, retired after working many years in Iowa School of the Deaf, and also here in Nebraska. Number three is Kenya Taylor, a new appointment, professor of communication disorders at UNK, University of Nebraska at Kearney. Number four is Cecelia Bevard, a new appointment from Gothenburg, who lost her hearing from a drug reaction. She's a business owner. With that, I would ask for the adoption of this
