

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

February 24, 2004

reappointment. He was present to represent himself. He has a master's degree in counseling and guidance, and currently is president of the Nebraska Council on Compulsive Gambling, and has extensive experience in treating alcoholism also. The second one was Thomas Nutt, from Holdrege. He is also a reappointment and he was present to represent himself. He works for Phelps County...in Phelps County as a law enforcement officer and is a member of many civic organizations. That was the two that were appointed on February 9.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Chairman Janssen. That was the opening on the confirmation report. Open for discussion on that motion. Senator Schimek. Senator Schimek. Senator Schimek. Senator, did you wish to address the confirmation report by the General Affairs? Okay. She waives the opportunity to speak. Any other senator wishing to speak? I see none. Senator Janssen, to close. He waives the opportunity to close. The question before the body is the report offered by the General Affairs Committee. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted who care to? Record please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote, Legislative Journal pages 733-734.) 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the confirmation report.

SENATOR CUDABACK: (Inaudible) was successful, has been adopted. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, second report by General Affairs Committee, involving the appointment of three individuals to the State Electrical Board.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Janssen, to open on the second report.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. These three appointments were also heard on February 9. And these are to the State Electrical Board. The first appointment was William King, of Omaha. That...he is a reappointment and was also present to represent himself. He is an electrician, and has been active in many electrical issues throughout the years. The